Visitors from Space

Eric Warren went to school in Leeds. He was a good pupil but he was terrible at sport. Pupils in Eric's school played tennis, cricket and rugby. The most popular sport in Eric's class was rugby. Eric trained a lot and worked hard but he was the worst player. His sports teacher was very angry with the boy. Eric didn't say anything. The other boys laughed at him. Eric usually walked home alone because his classmates didn't want to make friends with him.

That night Eric woke up because he saw a strange light outside. He went to the window and saw a big space ship in the garden. Eric couldn't believe his eyes. Two tall aliens with big heads came towards Eric.

"Hi, we are from the planet Neptune. What's your name?"

"I'm Eric. Nice to meet you," said Eric. "What are you doing on our planet?"

"We want to help you," said the visitors.

"But how can you help me?" asked Eric.

"Our planet is famous for sport. We are the winners of many competitions between galaxies. Please, give us your rugby boots."

Eric brought his rugby boots and gave them to the aliens.

"Now return to your bedroom and go to bed," said the aliens.

In the morning Eric woke up late. He looked very tired.

"Did you sleep well?" his mother asked.

"No. Visitors from Neptune came to our garden and they took my rugby boots," said Eric.

"Don't be silly. Your rugby boots are under your bed," said his mum.

Eric put on his school uniform and rugby boots and went to school.

In the afternoon there was a rugby game. Eric played very well. He was better than his classmates. Everyone admired him.

"Eric," said the sport teacher. "You have found the secret of success."

Eric looked at his rugby boots and smiled.
